

Hunting Information for Persons with Disabilities

Age Requirements

18 and over

Available 24/7

No

Other Eligibility Criteria

Adults with disabilities, which can include spinal cord injury, amputation, neuromuscular diseases, blindness, stroke or other disabling diseases.

Family

No

Intake Contact Email

customerservice@buckmasters.com

Intake Process

Call the office, visit the website

Provider Refer

Yes

Self Refer

Yes

Buckmasters American Deer Foundation

<http://buckmasters.com/Resources/BADF>

<http://buckmasters.com/Resources/Disabled-Hunters>

<https://www.facebook.com/buckmasters/>

Main

(205) 366-8415

Toll-Free

(800) 240-3337

10350 Highway 80 East

36117 VA

United States

Additional Availability Comments

Monday through Friday 8am to 9pm, CST

Fee Structure

Call for Information

Payment Method(s)

Private Pay
Languages Spoken
English

Buckmasters American Deer Foundatin (BADF) provides information about adaptive equipment, state laws and regulations, hunting opportunities and local and national disabled groups.

Disabled Hunters enjoy shooting sports and hunting. A wide range of programs and resources are available for outdoor adventures. Contact your local chapter for more information.

Shenandoah Valley Buckmasters - Grottoes, VA, Brenda Sheffer- 540.578.2802

Service Area(s)

Nationwide

Email

customerservice@buckmasters.com