H and K Consulting manages medical paper work to ensure client is correctly billed and reimbursed. Represents client in problem area when dealing with hospitals and doctor's office; makes sure the medical facility has applied and the payments and adjustments properly adjusted to your account. Follow-up insurance payment, appeal denials of claims and incorrect payments; reviews insurance policies; provides education on benefits and options; determines coverage limits to recover the full extent of benefits. Reviews insurance policies and explains them so you can understand. In other words, relieves the patient and family of the burden caused by having to cope with medical bills and insurance claims.
