The Virginia Down Syndrome Association (VDSA) formerly Down Syndrome Association of Greater Richmond offers information and support through monthly meetings which are generally held on the third Friday of each month. Dinner 6:15-7 pm & Presentation 7-8:30 pm.

Location and additional meeting details will be announced in advance. Dinner and childcare are generally provided and a small donation will be collected.

Meetings are open to VDSA members in addition to the general public, including educators, physicians, providers, friends, etc.

Please RSVP at least 2 days before the meeting so we can provide adequate food and childcare.

Please visit the website for events that happen throughout the year: Cut-A-Thon, Softball tournaments, holiday parties, golf events, and more.
