Leaf Spring School provides The Get Well Place, respite services for working parents who have a child (from birth to 13 years) that is mildly ill, including children with disabilities and special health care needs. Staffed by a full time pediatric nurse. The Get Well Place offers backup care for children with common childhood illnesses such as colds, flu or chicken pox and is open to all children, regardless whether they are enrolled at Rainbow Station. Care can be for a few hours or a full day.

The Get Well Place offers 4 separate rooms, one for gastrointestinal illness, one for respiratory illness, for contagious illnesses and for convalescent care.
