Event Description

Kinship/Grandparent Connection is a program of the Senior Advocate's office that offers monthly support groups and resources for grandparents and other kin who are raising a child. Our support group is non-threatening and non-judgmental. We offer complete confidentiality and a safe place to come and talk, cry or just listen. Come and share your experiences and concerns. The program is free and open to any grandparent (or other relative raising a child) in the area. Kinship Connection meets on the 3rd Thursday of each month, 4:30-6 p.m. and free child care is provided. Another group meets on the 3rd Monday of each month, 9:30-11 a.m.; no child care is provided for this group.
