Autistics Association of Greater Washington

<http://aagw.net>

United States

The Autistics Association of Greater Washington was formerly known as the Asperger Adults of Greater Washington. They have meetings every month at the Teism at Penn Quarter restaurant on the corner of 8th and D Streets, Northwest; located near the Archives/ Navy Memorial Metrorail Station in downtown Washington. Meeting dates and times are listed on the website and available to those who get on the email list. Meetings and email list are limited to autistic adults and one or two guests. The meetings consist of socializing, eating, and then discussions of relevant topics to autistics.
