Think College is a national organization dedicated to developing, expanding, and improving inclusive higher education options for people with intellectual disability.

View PDF
Source
Think College