The ENDependence Center of Northern Virginia, Inc. (ECNV) works to advocate for individuals with disabilities to make facilities, services, and opportunities available and accessible to all individuals.

ECNV works in partnership with other disability organizations and community members at the local, state and federal legislative levels with a goal to advocate for effective service delivery that places the participant in control of service delivery that meets his or her needs.

For more information, please contact Doris Ray, Director of Advocacy, at 703-673-4489 or DorisR@ecnv.org.
