Society for Accessible Travel & Hospitality (SATH) is a nonprofit membership organization to raise awareness of the needs of all travelers with disabilities, to remove physical and attitudinal barriers to free access and expand travel opportunities in the US and abroad. To inform and educate the general public about accessibility by a consumer with disabilities and their travel companions to various areas of recreational facilities, medical services, socialization, monuments, etc.

Sath offers speakers' bureau on disability travel; a clearinghouse for disability access information worldwide; lobbying and advising government officials, agencies and tourist boards, here and abroad, on travel-related policies.
