National Multiple Sclerosis Society, Greater DC & Maryland advocates on behalf of people with multiple sclerosis (MS) to ensure equal access to employment, to public accommodations/ transportation, and to quality health care. For more information about Advocacy, Government Relations and local issues, please call Shawn Brennan at the chapter office, 202-296-9891.

Action Alert is a grassroots volunteer program that mobilizes members to communicate with policymakers about proposed changes in laws affecting people with MS.
