Alexandria Office of Housing offers a Rental Accessibility Modification Program (RAMP) to renters. The program can provide financial assistance in providing accessibility modifications such as walk in bath tubs, roll in showers, handicap ramps, etc to qualified individuals who have low to moderate income.

This program provides grants of up to $50,000 to qualified renters for primary residence modifications that are necessary to accommodate the particular circumstances of the disabled member of the household. The program also provides "mini-grants" to assist households needing limited modifications of up to $2,500. T
