Goochland Free Clinic and Family Services offers financial assistance and counseling for individuals and families who qualify.

Emergency financial assistance is provided to individuals to prevent homelessness by providing assistance with rent, mortgage, electricity, heat and other financial emergencies. When a family seeks financial assistance, they are required to meet with one of the financial counselors.

Assistance is reviewed on case-by-case basis and depends on money available. For more information or to make an appointment, call 804-556-6260.
