The University of Virginia Speech-Language-Hearing Center offers comprehensive services for the diagnosis and treatment of language, speech, and hearing disorders for adults, adolescents, children, and infants. The facility has treatment rooms with observation capabilities and diagnostic suites for hearing evaluations and hearing aid fittings.

The Speech-Language-Hearing Center is now part of the Sheila C. Johnson Center for Human Services. Parking is available in the lot next to the building, off of Emmet Street. Please park in one of the spaces marked Sheila C. Johnson Clinic, then report to the reception desk to obtain a parking pass.
