The Coalition on Donation is a nonprofit alliance of national organizations and local coalitions across the United States. It is dedicated to educating the public about organ and tissue donation, correcting misconceptions and about donation and creating a greater willingness to donate.

The Coalition on Donation Web site contains a state-by-state guide to organ donation (regulations vary by state), a list of local chapters nationwide, a section on questions and myths about donation, Web documentaries about donors and recipients, downloadable resources for teachers, e-postcards, and downloadable public service announcement banner ads.
