Clinch River Health is a community-supported clinic that provides health care to the surrounding area. Provides all areas of medical services such as prenatal and postnatal care, pediatrics, adolescents, adults, and geriatrics; screenings for hypertension, diabetes, and other chronic medical conditions. Will provide prescription assistance for the indigent and elderly by helping them connect with the indigent service programs of the drug companies.

Telemedicine services are available on-site through the University of Virginia's Telemedicine program. Several specialty services are available through this program.

Access to medicines is available to patients free of charge through the pharmaceutical companies' indigent programs. Patients must meet eligibility requirements of the individual companies.

Offers a Discount Program for low-income persons and families. Will waive fees for indigents.

Accessibility: CRHS has its own parking lot with access to the building without a ramp.
