Eastern Shore Center for Independent Living offers peer counselors to assist individuals with disabilities to develop and achieve independence and self-reliance. Through counseling, sharing of experiences in coping with the effects of disability, participants learn about the needs and resources to achieve their goal. Peer counseling can be on an individual basis, as well as group support. Also provides encouragement and information about community resources, sharing insights and perspectives from personal experience.

Independent Living Skills: Individual and group training is provided in several categories including: personal assistant management, social skills, building self-esteem, money management, navigating ones environment, and self-advocacy. All programs are designed to meet individual needs.

Group Counseling for Individuals with Disabilities provides services to help the disabled to become more knowledgeable on issues affecting the disabled community. Contact the agency for more information.
