The Salvation Army Corps provides many community outreach activities. In addition to worship services and Bible study groups, the Corps offers a Sunday school program, a music ministry, senior programs, youth activities and volunteer outreach for both men and women. The music ministry includes a brass band comprised of members of the Corps. The band performs at community functions and teaches beginning and intermediate Brass Band classes.

Corps serves as the ministry's church, a location for spiritual guidance and outreach to those in need.
