Lyn-CAG's Emergency Assistance and Crisis Intervention Program (EACI) provides emergency assistance to households faced with the threat of homelessness, hunger, loss of utility services, and prescription medication and supplies needs.

- Mortgage or rental assistance is provided to prevent eviction.
- Financial assistance is provided to prevent disconnection of a utility or loss of fuel services such as electricity, water, gas, wood and oil.
- Basic food items, household staples, clothing, furniture, linen and small appliances are distributed through the food pantry, clothing closets and household supply facility.
- Vouchers are available for needed prescription medication and supplies.

Face-to-Face interviews are required for all applicants applying for Emergency Assistance.
