Our Client Services Program is designed specifically to help clients who are in the midst of financial hardships. We understand that challenges such as job loss, underemployment, illness, or disabilities can create financial difficulties.

Our services include emergency financial assistance with rent and utilities; on-site budgeting assistance and financial literacy education (5 budgeting programs per month) with our partner Britepaths, senior luncheons in partnership with Fairfax County Government, on-site ESOL classes, laundry ministry in partnership with local churches and referrals to other social service providers for needs such as clothing, counseling, and more.

WFCM serves clients who reside in zip codes 20171 (Oak Hill) and 22030 (Fairfax) in addition to Centreville (20120, 20121), Clifton (20124), Fairfax Station (22039), Chantilly (20151), and Fair Oaks (22033).

Bus Line: Metrobus. Wheelchair accessible.
