Madison Emergency Services Association (MESA) offers emergency financial assistance to qualified families in need. In Madison County, families without or about to be without electricity, gas, water or telephone service because of inability to pay bills; and elderly people faced with bills for medicines and medical care they cannot pay can turn to MESA for help. MESA supports individuals by helping with:

- utility payments
- rent/mortgage payments
- personal needs
- referrals to other service providers
- transportation needs (gas, car repairs, car insurance)
- school supplies
- diapers
- clothes for the family
- medical and dental needs

MESA offers information and referral as well as financial assistance and family programs.
