Colonial Center for Hearing offers services for individuals who want hearing protection or custom made in-the-ear monitors. The clinic offers custom made hearing protection for hunters and people who work in a noisy environment, custom-made in-the-ear monitors available to musicians, and custom fit earpieces for hands-free cellular phone operation, and custom-made swim molds for children and adults.

Hearing aids are serviced and repaired in the office and a full line-up of assistive listening devices, batteries and other hearing accessories are offered.
