One-on-one assistance is provided in the privacy of your own home or in the office to help individuals understand all the decisions they must make as they become Medicare eligible. Medicare Parts A, B, C, D, and Medicare Supplements are explained using Medicare provided information. If requested, telephone calls can be made to your current insurance provider and/or to Medicare to answer any specific questions you may have.

The object of the consultation is to help you be an informed consumer of Medicare and related services. Household Document Organization does not sell insurance and is not affiliated with anyone who does. Medicare Part D analysis and enrollment can be provided as that on line capability is provided directly by Medicare at www.medicare.gov.
