United Community's Stepping Stones Program provides critical basic needs and supportive services to families in need of emergency assistance. The Cynthia Hull Food Pantry provides a wide variety of food assistance on a regular basis. Qualified families can receive canned goods, fresh produce, eggs, meat, and other food assistance weekly.

Under the Case Management program, case workers meet with clients and provide them with information, encouragement, and support

We partner with Fairfax County, the Capital Area Food Bank, and The Greater DC Diaper Bank to provide emergency food and diapers for thousands of families who live in zip codes 22306, 22307, 22308, 22309, and East of Telegraph 22303 and 22310.

Rental and utility assistance may also available.
