Group Day Services Program is designed to offer individuals meaningful and functional year round group day services based on improving quality of life and enhancing independence for individuals with disabilities. Civitan promotes individuals' integration within their communities and interactions with other community members; offering more freedom and options to develop natural support systems and relationships. All activities provide a focus on growth in independence and self-actualization. Services provided include skill building and support for the acquisition, retention, employability and adaptive skills. Group day services provide opportunities for peer interactions, community integration, enhancement of social networks and assurance of an individual's health and safety.

Delivered in a group setting of no more than 1:7 staff to individual ratio.
