Circle of Friends, LLC provides In-Home Residential Services to children and adults who have diagnoses of intellectual disabilities, emotional challenge, autism or developmental disabilities. In-Home Residential Services provides assistance in the homes or communities of the individual, often in a one-to-one setting. Circle of Friends focuses on empowering individuals through person-centered planning. The services provided are highly individualized to meet the individual's specific needs.

Individuals must have had a complete medical exam within the last year, including testing for the absence of tuberculosis. Consumers must have two or more deficiencies in the areas of health status, communication, task learning skills, personal or self-care skills, mobility, behavioral skills or community living skills.
