Phoenix-n-Peace provides support in the home for people with intellectual disabilities living in their own home and/or with family members. They include, but are not limited to, drop-in or friendly-visitor support and counseling to more intensive detailed support, monitoring, training, in-home support, respite care and family support services. Services are based on the needs of the individual and include training and assistance. These services normally do not involve overnight care by the provider; however, due to the flexible nature of these services, overnight care may be provided on an occasional basis.
