Visions Community Services, LLC shall provide Sponsored Residential Home Services for individuals who are diagnosed with Intellectual Disability. Services are designed to provide an alternative residential living that focuses on a more individualized plan of quality services. Individuals will receive services that are provided in a natural family environment and offer more individual choices, more individualized attention to their service needs; more variety and opportunity of community inclusion and a consistent staffing plan that will improve the consistency of service delivery.

Each Sponsored Residential Home will be available to provide services 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Support is available to individuals, ages 18 and above, that meet the level of functioning eligibility criteria in two or more of the following areas:

- health and safety
- communication
- task learning
- personal care
- mobility
- behavior management
- community living skills
- money management
- medication management
