At Danville-Pittsylvania Community Services, people with developmental disabilities receive assistance and support in their own homes which enables them to continue living in the community. Services can be provided for people who live alone or with family members. Emphasis is placed on individual needs and empowering people to meet the challenges of living in the community.

Individuals receive training and assistance with:

- Learning to solve problems;
- Cooking, cleaning, and shopping;

- Money management;
- Community inclusion.
