The Lewis B. Puller Center, operated by VersAbility Resources, provides day support services to adults with disabilities across the Middle Peninsula and Northern Neck regions. Serving individuals from 10 counties, the Puller Center is a vital resource offering engaging activities, skill development, and meaningful community connections.

At the Puller Center, individuals participate in structured, person-centered programming designed to promote independence, social engagement, and community integration. The program focuses on life skills development, recreational activities, and volunteer opportunities that enhance personal growth and social inclusion.

As part of their community involvement, individuals at the Puller Center actively volunteer with local organizations. Volunteer activities foster a sense of purpose and connection while positively impacting the community.

The Lewis B. Puller Center is committed to empowering individuals with disabilities by providing enriching experiences and meaningful engagement in a supportive and inclusive environment.
