Didlake, Inc. provides employment services to individuals with disabilities who are funded through the Virginia Department of Aging and Rehabilitative Services (DARS), local CSBs, and the DD Medicaid Waiver. Supported employment services include Individual Supported Employment (ISE) or as Group Supported Employment (GSE). Each provides a different level of service to achieve a successful employment outcome. ISE Services provide support by an Employment Specialist on a one-to-one basis to meet the need of each individual in a supported employment position. GSE Services provide continuous support by staff for eight or fewer individuals in a work crew model.

Additional employment services include:

- career exploration services,
- situational assessments,
- job development services,
- job placement and training services,
- natural supports,
- specialized support services,
- ongoing services.

Didlake, Inc. is an Employment Network (EN) participant in the Ticket to Work Program providing Follow-Along Support Services and ongoing benefits planning for Ticket to Work Program participants.
