Money Follows the Person is a program that helps individuals transition from institutional, nursing home care back to their homes and communities. MFP Transition Coordination Provider services include, but are not limited to, the development of a transition plan; the provision of information about services that may be needed, in accordance with the timeframe specified in federal law, prior to the discharge date, during and after transition; the coordination of community-based services with the case manager, if case management is available; linkage to services needed prior to transition such as housing, peer counseling, budget management training, and transportation; and the provision of ongoing support for up to 12 months after discharge date.

Services provided on site and in the community. Accessible hallways, meeting rooms, offices and bathrooms.
