Money Follows the Person (MFP) Transition Coordination Provider services include, but are not limited to:

- the development of a transition plan;
- the provision of information about services that may be needed, in accordance with the timeframe specified in federal law, prior to the discharge date, during and after transition;
- the coordination of community-based services with the case manager, if case management is available;
- linkage to services needed prior to transition such as housing, peer counseling, budget management training, and transportation;
- the provision of ongoing support for up to 12 months after the discharge date.

MFP is a federal grant Medicaid program that makes home and community-based services more accessible to older adults and individuals with disabilities.
