The Arc South of the James was established to assist individuals who reside south of the James to access services for either themselves or loved ones with a diagnosed Intellectual Disability (ID) or developmental disabilities (DD). The Arc fosters a sense of inclusion and provides training, information regarding ID/DD Waivers, IEP's, and other services.

The Arc South of the James promotes, protects and advocates for the human rights of children and adults with developmental disabilities (DD) and intellectual disabilities (ID) and actively supports their inclusion and participation in the community throughout their lifetimes.
