Camp Holiday Trails is a year-round nonprofit camp for children with medical needs providing weekend and weekly programs. It offers a comprehensive recreation program designed to enhance and build self-esteem and independence. Summer camp sessions are for 1 and 2-week periods.

Various other camp opportunities are offered:

- family camp weekends for parents and caregivers
- respite and networking opportunities for families and caregivers
- year-round youth camps and family camps
- rental camp opportunities for other community groups

Activities can include horseback riding, canoeing, challenge course, zip line, swimming, arts and crafts and drama. Our Campers have diverse diagnoses such as arthritis, asthma and other respiratory conditions, cancer, diabetes, epilepsy and other seizure disorders, heart disease, immunodeficiency-including HIV, kidney disease, obesity, organ transplants, urological disorders and more.
