National Down Syndrome Congress (NDSC) advocates for community awareness and acceptance of individuals with Down syndrome and hopes all people will recognize and embrace the value and dignity of people with Down syndrome.

NDSC is a clearinghouse for information on Down syndrome. The center provides up-to-date information on topics of interest to people with Down syndrome, family members, friends, professionals, and interested others.

Down Syndrome News is published seven times per year with information and resources; a newsletter is published two times per year.
