LIVE ART is a groundbreaking new 20-week educational program for students of all abilities culminating with a major public concert featuring these students and prominent Virginia musicians.

As a unique, multi-disciplinary, inclusive educational program, LIVE ART is building relationships among arts organizations, educators and artists to expand arts opportunities for students with developmental disabilities and typically developing students alike. LIVE ART is at the leading edge of arts education, integrating performing arts curriculum with special education to create a major performance event.

Several productions are scheduled during the year for the public.
