The ServiceSource Virginia Regional Office for Employment and Rehabilitation Services' Group Supported Employment program offers a variety of employment options and close supervision. Through this program, a workgroup travels to an offsite location to work on a specific contract. Employment work groups provide a wide variety of services to local businesses, including but not limited to the following:

- Mail services;
- Laundry services;
- Food services;
- Custodial services;
- Retail support.

The ServiceSource Virginia Regional Office for Employment and Rehabilitation Services provides direct employment opportunities for people with disabilities by securing business service contracts with both commercial and government customers. The majority of the affirmative employment contracts are with the Federal Government under the AbilityOne Program. Through the AbilityOne Program, people with disabilities receive long-term employment opportunities in an integrated environment, earning competitive wages and benefits. ServiceSource employees work in the following areas:

- Administrative support;
- Food services;
- Mail center management;
- Total facilities management;
- Document management;
- Packaging and assembly.
