Ann Mason, previously known as Everette Mason Home Care, offers companion care. Caregivers who are screened and trained offer companionship and conversation, medication reminders, plan and prepare meals, light housekeeping, laundry, accompany clients to doctors or appointments, perform errands, and more. Overnight assistance can be provided for clients who need attention throughout the night.

Personal care and companion services allow individuals to remain in their home. Private duty nursing is available.

Other services include personal care, respite care and Consumer Directed to the Elderly and Disabled.
