The Harrisonburg-Rockingham Community Services Board (HRCSB) provides one-to-one customized support to help Medicaid eligible individuals with serious behavioral illness live fulfilling, independent lives. The staff works with individuals in their homes and in the community in order to help them develop the confidence and skills needed to live independently, such as:

- accessing transportation;
- budgeting, paying bills, and maintaining benefits;
- housekeeping, laundry, and cooking;
- managing appointments;
- improving physical health through nutrition and exercise;

- training to manage symptoms and medications.
