Intercept offers parenting programs. Intercept offers a continuum of parenting programs to meet the unique needs of families. Services range from basic training to clinical interventions, utilizing strength-based approaches and evidence-based curriculums. Intercept's parenting programs provide support and training to kinship care, biological families, or foster families during every stage of parenting.

Focus areas include basic training; nurturing and attachment; child care and safety; child growth and development; positive discipline, health and nutrition; and parental and family resilience. Specialized program for adoptive parents.

Also available is Parenting Skills for Life, a home-based service for parents or caregivers who are in need of practical parenting skills.

This service is available in other locations throughout Virginia. Please call for more information.
