The Visual Arts Center of Richmond offers 15 art studios, the True F. Luck Gallery and several meeting rooms that can be rented for weddings and private functions. Each year the Center brings visiting artists to each classes and special workshops and to engage with the community. The media center is designed to help journalists research stories about upcoming exhibits and events, as well as ongoing programs and partnerships.

Visit the website or call about the wide variety of classes offered for all ages.

Classes can include open figure drawing, pottery, handmade stationery, exploring porcelain, ceramic jewelry, watercolor, blacksmithing, photography, stained glass, and sewing.
