

Guide for Reasonable Accommodations and Modifications

The Guide for Reasonable Accommodations and Modifications provides guidance for residents needing accommodations and modifications due to a disability.

Housing Opportunities Made Equal of Virginia, Inc, developed this guide to assist residents needing reasonable accommodations and/or modifications due to a disability. Fair housing laws require providers to make reasonable accommodations in their rules, policies, practices or services to give a person with a disability an equal opportunity to use a dwelling unit or common area.