Region Ten Community Services Board (RTC SB) offers community-based socialization and participation activities. Services offered include:

- Community Coaching is a stand-alone service currently offered to participants of the Meadowcreek Center. This service assists adults with developmental disabilities to access community participation opportunities that are person-centered and integrated for full participation. The program strengthens and develops community relationships. This time-limited one on one service is geared towards individuals who are otherwise extremely challenged in accessing community engagement opportunities.
- Community Engagement is a stand-alone service currently offered to Meadowcreek participants. This small group service assists adults with developmental disabilities to form relationships in the community, become actively involved as community members and enjoy person-centered participation in a variety of areas of interest. Services are offered during the normal workweek.
