

Adaptive Riding

Age Requirements

5-22

,

18 and over

Other Eligibility Criteria

Children t least 4 years of age and adults with special needs, injured military personnel and veterans

Intake Process

Call for information about programs. Adaptive riding lessons are considered a leisure activity and do not require a prescription. Physical, occupational and speech-language pathology services must be prescribed by a physician.

Provider Refer

Yes

Self Refer

Yes

Making Strides of Virginia

<https://www.makingstridesofvirginia.org/>

<https://www.makingstridesofvirginia.org/adaptive-riding-2/>

Main

(804) 203-1991

7600 Applewhite Lane

23838 VA

United States

Fee Structure

Call for Information

Payment Method(s)

Private Pay

Languages Spoken

English

Making Strides of Virginia is serving children and adults with special needs, injured military personnel and veterans via hippotherapy, individualized and group adaptive riding and driving lessons as well as equestrian care education and hands-on activities. Through our programs, we help improve the physical and emotional needs of our community, brighten lives, and assist each participant in achieving their personal goals.

Service Area(s)

Chesterfield County

,

Colonial Heights City

,

Henrico County

,

Hopewell City

,

Powhatan County

,

Richmond City

Email

info@MakingStridesofVirginia.org