Serenity's sponsored residential service offers all of the services, benefits, and protections available in a group home but it does so in the comfort and intimacy of a family setting. Individuals with special needs are welcomed as roommates or family partners rather than as clients or patients. They are included in family get-togethers, holiday celebrations, and church activities.

Assistance with medication administration, mobility, communication skills, and training in behavior management are provided.

Homes located in Richmond, Hampton, Newport News, and York County. Please call for more information.
