

Understanding Your Health Care Coverage

The University of Kansas program on Health Access for Independent Living \(HAIL\) provides resources to support the health of people with disabilities.

Health care coverage or health insurance provides a way of paying for many kinds of health-related expenses, such as doctor's visits, hospital stays, medications, and durable medical equipment, like wheelchairs and walkers. Understanding Health Coverage provides essential information and resources on health care insurance options.

Article Source

Health Access for Independent Living (HAIL), University of Kansas

Source URL

<http://hail.ku.edu>

Last Reviewed

Thursday, January 20, 2022