Jenkins & Jenkins offers service relative to legally disabled children in the public school. Our approach is to educate parents, teachers and children about the law, negotiate difficult or expensive services, translate scores from professional evaluations into information the parents can use and talk to the children about what they want to do when they grow up and how they feel about school.

Legal disabilities can include autism, deafness, speech impairment, visual impairment, developmental delay, emotional disturbance, learning disabilities, mental retardation, traumatic brain injury and more.
