

Person-Centered Matters from the Dementia Action Alliance

Person-Centered Matters is a beautiful and compelling 16-minute video produced by the Dementia Action Alliance and filmed by a former National Geographic filmmaker. It portrays five people living with dementia and how person-centered care helps them live more fully. View the video here.

Source

Dementia Action Alliance