Event Description

Hope and Hot Chocolate presented by Good Samaritan Hospice is a special program for people experiencing loss and grief during the holiday season. With the guidance of grief/loss professionals, Hope and Hot Chocolate emphasizes ways to identify and meet your own emotional needs while enjoying the meaning and spirit of the holiday season. Wednesday, November 20, 2019 from 6-7 pm. Light refreshments will be served. This program is free but pre-registration is required as seating is limited. For more information and to register, please contact Emily Rhodes Hunter at 540-776-0198 or email her at ehunter@goodsamhospice.org
