ECHO's Community Integration Day Support Program blends in-house and community access skills training to participants who are not currently interested in and not pursuing employment as the main focus of their day. The program enhances the daily living, safety, communication, decision-making, self-advocacy and awareness skills of the individuals by building on their interests and choices.

The Community Integration L.I.F.E. (Learning, Independence, Friendship, Empowerment) Day Support Program brings a higher level of community involvement and a more diverse array of skills training and activities to the individuals receiving services. These activities are designed to develop new skills, reinforce skills training and develop relationships in the community.
